

Data we collect – STEM Ambassadors only	Why we need it
Name	Identify ambassador on the Stem Ambassador website
Email address	Initiate link to online induction /DBS check Programme correspondence
Home address	We use this address to send your ID badge and assign a Hub based on your location
Phone number	If we need to contact you relating to an event, for example if an event is cancelled at short notice
Mobile number (optional)	An optional alternative contact number
Date of birth	To ensure minimum age requirement for participation in STEM Ambassador programme
Ethnicity	Our funding agreements require us to provide anonymised statistical diversity reports
Gender
photo (optional)	Where you choose to, you may add a photo to your profile on the website Where you choose to supply a photo this will be used on your identification badge
Induction status	Programme management

Employer details (this may also include a parent company where data sharing between those organisations has been agreed)	To measure our impact across business / educational sectors To share activities delivered data with employers/scheme organisers (where consent is given)
Professional membership	Developing partnerships, reporting and monitoring To share details of your volunteer work with any professional institutions which you are a member of (where consent is given)
Activities preferences	Matching to suitable activities, programme coordination
Age range prefer to work with Groups work with preference
Activity preference
Activity details
DBS status and certificate number	As you may be working with young / vulnerable people we need this information to ensure we are meeting our safeguarding obligations.
NI number (optional)	Complete DBS check