

Starters for STEM are 10 activities that parents can use at home to help children develop their science, technology, engineering and maths skills. These activities are easy to resource and provide children with the stimulus to talk about the world around them. If you see a link you can explore how to extend these activities, you will need to sign up, for free, to access these materials. Don't forget to share your work on social media

Nature Treasure Box

Use an empty egg box as a treasure box to collect things from the garden.

Can you collect lots of things of the same colour? What about different smells? How many different things can you collect?

Has spring sprung?

Look outside. Can you see how the trees and plants are changing? What flowers can you see? Draw a picture to show that spring is here.

Floating and Sinking

What can you find in your house that sinks in the bath? Are there things that float?

What do you notice? Can you sort them.

What did you have for dinner?

Draw a picture of a big plate and then draw what you had for dinner last night.

Find out what type of foods you ate for your meal e.g. dairy product, protein, carbohydrate. Can you find out why your body needs these types of food?
