

Making observations

Observing leaves and learning about their shapes - leaf mice and some more ideas of leaf animals (see booklet, page 14)

Here are some more ideas of animals that can be inspired by leaf shapes. The observations help the children become aware of features on the leaves and making them into animals gives a bit of fun.

